[intro] C F C

C Some folks think that F this life ain't worth C living some folks think that life is just a G lie D G

You can F take so much from a man he'll C give you all he F can

When he's C had F enough he'll just G one up and C die

[Chorus]

He was a F legend in his time
I don't C know the reason why When he'd sing a F song you C know I'd like to G cry D G Now he's C on the other side standing F on God's golden shore
C Singing F country G music for the C Lord

C Now a singing life was F all he ever C wanted but a travelin' life can make a man feel G tired D G

Lay your F fortune on the line
C twenty-six ain't past your F prime

Now the C angel F band has G one more for the C choir

[Chorus]

[instrumental]

but if you have a song to sing you'll last G awhile D G

And we'll F hear his songs again coming C in on a hickory F wind

Grievous C angel F right G beside him one more C mile

[Chorus]
