Intro A / A

A This ole house once knew his children
D This ole house once new his wife
E This ole house was home and comfort
A as they fought the storms of life

A This ole house once rang with laughter
D This ole house heard many shouts
E Now he trembles in the darkness
A When the lightning walks about.

D (Ain't a gonna need this house no longer
A ain't a gonna need this house no more)
E ain't got time to fix the shingles
A ain't got time to fix the floor
D ain't got time to oil the hinges
A nor to mend no window panes
E ain't gonna need this house no longer
A He's getting ready to meet his fate

A This ole house is getting shaky
D This ole house is getting old
E This ole house lets in the rain
A This ole house lets in the cold

A oh his knees are a getting chilly
D But he feels no fear or pain
E cuz he see an angel peekin
A thru that broken window pane
